DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-6 are pending. Applicant's arguments filed 8/15/05 have been entered.

Claim 1 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 1/5/05.

Objections/Rejections Withdrawn

The following objections/rejections as set forth in the Office action mailed 3/25/05 have been withdrawn:

None.

Priority

Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No. 09/909403, filed on 7/19/2001.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 1751

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 2-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Uchiyama et al (US 2002/0010106).

Uchiyama et al teach a stable composition for removing unwanted molecules from a surface comprising cyclodextrin. The compositions are suitable for substrates including dishes. See Abstract. Additionally, the compositions may contain a carrier such as alcohol. See para 137.

Note that, the Examiner asserts that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to pretreat dishes with the cleaning composition as taught by Uchiyama et al and then wash them in an automatic dishwasher when the tableware has particularly tough grease or soil stains as recited by instant claims 5 and 6.

Uchiyama et al do not teach, with sufficient specificity, a method of removing solids from tableware using a composition containing an organic solvent and cyclodextrin in the specific proportions as recited by the instant claims.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to remove solids from tableware using a composition containing an organic solvent and cyclodextrin in the specific proportions as recited by the instant claims with a reasonable expectation of success, because the broad teachings of Uchiyama et al suggest removing solids from tableware using a composition containing an organic solvent and cyclodextrin in the specific proportions as recited by the instant claims.

Response to Arguments

With respect to Uchiyama et al, Applicant states that Uchiyama et al does not meet either criteria to constitute prior art under 35 USC 102(e). Note that, the Examiner maintains that Uchiyama et al, which is a patent application publication, qualifies as prior art under 35 USC 102(e) because the invention in the application publication was by another and the subject matter relied upon has an earlier effective filing date than the invention of the instant application. Under 35 USC 102(e), the entire disclosure of a US patent, a US patent application publication, or an international application publication having an earlier effective US filing date can be relied on to reject the claims. See MPEP 2136.02.

Additionally, for reference publications and patents of patent applications filed under 35 USC 111(a), the prior art dates under 35 USC 102(e) afforded to these references are the earliest effective US filing dates. Thus, a publication and patent of a 35 USC 111(a) application, which claims priority under 35 USC 119(e) to a prior US provisional application or claims the benefit under 35 USC 120 of a prior nonprovisional application, would be accorded the earlier filing date as its prior art date under 35 USC 102(e), assuming the earlier-filed application has proper support for the subject matter as required by 35 USC 119(e) or 120. See MPEP 706.02(f)(1). The Examiner asserts that Uchiyama et al, which has a filing date of 5/15/01 and claims priority under 35 USC 119(e) to 60/204,161, filed 5/15/00, has a prior art date under 35 USC 102(e) of 5/15/00 since all the subject matter relied upon in Uchiyama et al has support back to 60/204,161 which was filed on 5/15/00. Thus, Uchiyama et al qualifies as prior art under 35 USC 102(e).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
